

The new Bradfield Scheme could provide 30 thousand km² of new irrigated land in inland Queensland, more than doubling the land under irrigation, and catapulting Australia from 23rd place by irrigated land area (between Peru and Japan) to 8th place (between Brazil and Thailand).